

MUSEUM of NORTHERN ARIZONA

Welcome new and returning Zuni Festival artists!

It is hard to believe, but it is time to plan for the 25th Annual Zuni Festival of Arts and Culture at the MNA, Memorial Day weekend May 23-24, 2015. The festival opens with a Member’s Only sales opportunity and preview on May 22, with the juried competition the same day. The festival weekend is fun-filled and attended by over 1000 visitors per day. Please contact the MNA Heritage Program with any questions, comments or suggestions at 928-774-5211, ext. 217 or heritageprogram2@mna.mus.az.us. Please join us for this fun and exciting weekend. Thank you, Elahkwa.

Booth info

- You may share your booth and booth fee with one other selling artist who is a family member.
- If sharing a booth, indicate on your application who you are sharing with and how fees are being split up or shared.
- Each artist must submit a completed application and each artist is responsible for paying the $15 City of Flagstaff Special Events Fee and $20 application fee. Children 16 and under do not pay fees but need to fill out an application for MNA records. Full payment is due with application.
- A full refund (minus application fee) is available through May 1.
- Booths (6-foot table with 2 chairs) will be assigned on a first-come, first-served basis. Please mark on the map your preferred location. Booth locations subject to availability.
- Exhibitor booths must be set up for the Members' Preview no later than 4 p.m. Friday, May 22.
- Exhibitor booths will open from 8:30 a.m. to 5 p.m. on Saturday, May 23 and Sunday, May 24.
- Refreshments will be available from 8:30 a.m. through 3 p.m. on Saturday and Sunday.
- Museum volunteers will be available to provide up to 20-minute breaks.

Jury info

- This is a juried festival and recent photos of artwork (3-5) are required.
- All applications will be held to standards and regulations established by the Indian Arts and Crafts Board.
- Jewelry must be handmade of natural materials and must comply with the applicable federal and state regulations regarding natural materials. Acceptable commercial findings include cones, clasps, hooks/eyes, earring backs, bolo backs, pin backs, tiger tail, and fox tail. Commercially strung pieces will not be accepted.
- Commercially-made items – t-shirts, mugs, printed items –are not permissible.
- Both Native-fired and kiln-fired pottery is accepted, but kiln-fired work must be labeled. Slip cast and commercial green ware will not be accepted.
- All displayed artwork must be for sale and approved for inclusion.
- Artists may deliver artwork for juried competition during the art collection trip Friday, May 15, or deliver artwork to the MNA by 12 noon on Friday, May 22.

Consignment info

- The Museum will accept and sell artwork from artists who do not have an artist booth. The purpose of this consignment room is to encourage artists and share with the public as much of a large representation of Zuni art as we can. MNA charges 30% commission on sold items. Each artist may submit up to three items total for consignment. All artwork accepted for consignment sale is eligible for the Awards of Excellence competition. Payments for artwork sold and any unsold artwork will be available to artists after the festival weekend. Artists may deliver artwork for consignment sale during the art collection trip May 15 or deliver artwork to the MNA by 12 noon on Friday, May 22.

Awards info

- The Museum of Northern Arizona Awards of Excellence competition is open to any artist accepted into the festival. Each artist may submit up to three items total for the competition. Over $4000 in prize money and ribbons will be awarded. Categories include Best of Show, Fine Art, Youth Art, the new Spirit Award, and many more. Judging will be held on Friday, May 22 at 12 noon.

Silent Auction info

- Donating a piece of your work to the Festival's Members' Preview Silent Auction is a great way to get your work noticed. Held on Friday, May 29 at 6pm, more than 300 people attend the preview, and the money raised supports Zuni Festival Awards of Excellence. Silent auction donations are accepted from all artists at any time. Please contact the Heritage Program department if you are interested in making a donation to the silent auction, and thank you for considering this opportunity.
