

October 2014

at the MUSEUM of NORTHERN ARIZONA

Museum Guided Tours

Saturdays & Sundays, 1 pm • Included w/ admission

Enjoy a docent-led tour of Museum highlights.

Hot Topics Café

Independent Voters and Arizona Primaries w/ John Devlin

Wednesday, Oct. 1, 6 pm

Branigar/Chase Discovery Center

Free Event

Presented by Northern Arizona University's Philosophy in the Public Interest, Hot Topics Café is a program that creates a forum for civil discourse about matters of significance to our communities. Participants are given unbiased information that presents arguments on competing sides. Community members are then invited to voice their views on the topic.

Discovery 2nd Saturday, "Fossil Day!"

Saturday, Oct. 11, 2 pm • Included w/ admission

Branigar/Chase Discovery Center

Included w/ one adult admission/MNA members free

For children of all ages! Celebrate National Fossil Day with exciting hands-on activities and creative crafts. Learn how ancient prehistoric creatures connect us to past climates. Enjoy Fossiliferous games and excavate your own fossil.

Behind the Scenes Collections Tours – Paleontology

Friday, Oct. 17, 4 pm

$10 non-members/MNA members free

Go behind the scenes and get an unforgettable glimpse into a side of MNA most visitors will never see! Space is limited. A reservation and a confirmation number are required. Children 10+ welcome.

Riding the Rim: 12th Annual Cowboy Poetry Gathering

Sunday, Oct. 19, 1 pm

Branigar/Chase Discovery Center

Included w/ admission

Poets from around the state will stir the air as only cowboys can with poetry, song and open range entertainment. Presented in conjunction with the 23rd Annual Trappings of the American West Exhibition & Sale.

Hot Topics Café

Climate Change w/ Matt Goodwin

Monday, Oct. 20, 12-1 pm

Branigar/Chase Discovery Center

Free Event

Join Northern Arizona University's Philosophy in the Public Interest for a brown bag lunch facilitated discussion.

11th Annual

Celebraciones de la Gente

Saturday & Sunday, Oct. 25 & 26

9 am - 5 pm

Included w/ museum admission

Celebrate Mexican cultural traditions at this lively festival of the Day of the Dead. Visitors will have the opportunity to purchase arts and crafts directly from participating artists while enjoying traditional food, music, lectures, workshops and dance performances by local, national and international presenters. Fun for the entire family!

Featuring Mariachi del Sol Azteca, Tlanextli Tlacopan Aztec Fire Dancers and Ballet Folklorico de Colores.

MEMBER PREVIEW: Friday, October 24, 6 - 8 pm

The Wilbur - Cruce Colonial Spanish Horse:

Arizona's First Horse

Saturday & Sunday, Oct. 25 & 26, 1 pm

Branigar/Chase Discovery Center

Free w/ museum admission

Padre Eusebio Kino historian Mark O'Hare with Wilbur - Cruce Horse expert Maureen Kirk-Detberner present their documentary work on this living legend.

EXHIBITIONS

Shonto Begay: Map of My Heart

On View through Oct. 26

23rd Annual Trappings of the American West Exhibition & Sale

On View through Dec. 7

MUSEUM of NORTHERN ARIZONA

Flagstaff • 928.774.5213 • musnaz.org

Hours Mon – Sat 10 am – 5 pm & Sun 12 – 5 pm

Grand Canyon
U.S. Highway 180 / N. Fort Valley Road
Flagstaff

North Accessible & Special Events Entrance

Historic South Entrance

MUSEUM of NORTHERN
ARIZONA