Title

Grenville Goodwin collection

Dates

1932-1971

Extent

5.5 cm textual material

Biographical History

During the 1930s Grenville Goodwin was considered one of the leading field anthropologists in American Indian research. Goodwin was drawn to the Apache culture and spent the years between 1928 and 1936 living on the San Carlos Apache reservation.

Scope and Content

Collection consists of Goodwin's original notes and partial manuscript on Apache ethnobotany, the original manuscript of Apache Ethnobotany and notes written by Alfred F. Whiting who reviewed Goodwin's work some thirty years later. Also included is a listing that links Goodwin's ID numbers with MNA specimens in the botany collection.

Conditions Governing Access

This material contains culturally sensitive material and thus some items are restricted. Please contact the MNA Archivist for more information and to obtain permission for viewing these materials.

Conditions Governing Reproduction and Use

Unpublished and published manuscripts are protected by copyright. Permission to publish, quote, or reproduce must be secured from the repository and the copyright holder.

Immediate Source of Acquisition

Collection was donated by Volney Jones in 1967. An addition was made by A.F. Whiting in 1971. In 2010, collections staff provided additional textual material.

Related Archival Materials

Additional A.F. Whiting material is located in the Northern Arizona University Cline Library Special Collections: A.F. Whiting collection [manuscript], 1930-1979, NAU.MS.25
