Title

Navajo Agriculture collection

Dates

Circa 1950-1960

Extent

0.25 cm textual material

Administrative History

Very little is known about most of the collection, but the Cooperative Extension Service that produced the poster is a division underneath the U.S. Dept. of Agriculture.

Scope and Content

Collection consists of a livestock census statement by John Deering (circa 1950), a Navajo Tribe Feed Grain Program tag (1959), and a livestock poster from the Cooperative Extension Service in Tuba City.

Conditions Governing Reproduction and Use

Unpublished and published manuscripts are protected by copyright. Permission to publish, quote, or reproduce must be secured from the repository and the copyright holder.

Languages and Scripts of the Materials

Materials entirely in English

Immediate Source of Acquisition

The livestock census and feed grain program tag were found by a student working on the Glen Canyon project in 1960. They were donated by Alexander J. Lindsay in May of that year. The poster from the Cooperative Extension Service was collected by Bruce Harrill in 1971 and donated that same year.
