Mischa Titiev collection

Dates

1933-1941, 1992

Extent

23.5 cm textual material

Biographical History

Mischa Titiev (1901-1978) was a Russian born Anthropologist who received his PhD from Harvard University in 1935. Titiev was responsible for a number of significant publications in his field including Old Oraibi which was based on his field research of the Hopi Indians between 1932 and 1934.

Scope and Content

Collection consists of some of Titiev's manuscripts including one copy of The Hopi Indians and two edits of Old Oraibi. The collection also contains research information (census data from Old Oraibi from 1933-34) and correspondence between Mischa Titiev and Elsie Clews Parson concerning Titiev's work on Old Oraibi.

Conditions Governing Access

This material contains culturally sensitive items and thus some materials are restricted. Restrictions were placed by staff at the Hopi Cultural Preservation Office (HCPO). Advance permission is required by the HCPO to view restricted materials. Please contact the MNA Archivist for more information and to obtain permission for viewing these materials.

Conditions Governing Reproduction and Use

Unpublished and published manuscripts are protected by copyright. Permission to publish, quote, or reproduce must be secured from the repository and the copyright holder.

Immediate Source of Acquisition

Collection was donated by Mischa Titiev in 1964 and 1966. Additional materials were donated in 1999 by Jerrold Levy.
